

As a parent I am very concerned and find it almost impossible to turn on the TV after 7:00pm without there being an excess of violence, or adult themed programming, unsuitable for my sons aged 5 and 10. I firmly believe there are negative consequences for children from this exposure.